Convocation at Carleton University

The Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. (Marshall of Convocation, H.H.J. Nesbitt, has performed this function for all but one of the University's 77 Convocations.) During the ceremony itself, the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chairman of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

Coat of Arms

Carleton University's coat of arms is described in heraldic terms as follows: "On a field sable; in radiants d'argent, a maple leaf gules charged with an open book; crest—a phoenix propre." It is comprised of a black shield bearing an open book on a red maple leaf surrounded by silver rays. The shield is surmounted by a phoenix, and below the shield is a scroll bearing the motto "Ours The Task Eternal."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The radiants are the light of learning. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 82 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University is a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's—are of the simple or Oxford shape. Bachelor's is made of black stuff; master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: architecture—cerise; arts—white; commerce—camel brown; computer science—royal blue; engineering—orange; industrial design—dark cardinal; journalism—white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; music—venetian pink; public administration—peacock blue; science—golden yellow; social work—cream; and doctor of philosophy—purple.

The bachelor's gown, to be worn with the above hoods, is of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yolk behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The master's gown is of full style, made of black silk or rayon, with full gathered yolk behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows. The doctoral gown is the same style as the master's, made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk.

The gown of the Honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Science, and Engineering is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves, made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for degrees by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree Doctor of Literature; red for the degree Doctor of Science; and orange for the degree Doctor of Engineering.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor, the Hon. Gordon Robertson, P.C., C.C., M.A., LL.D., D. de l'Univ., F.R.S.C.

Accompanying him on the podium will be Mr. C.T. Kelley, B.A.,
